PASTOR'S CORNER

In His infinite wisdom, God puts families together. Although every family lacks perfection, He gives us a glimpse of what being part of a family is like. He gives authority to fathers, mothers, and guardians to watch over and provide for the needs of the family. Children are to love and support each other, and honor their parents. Luther speaks strongly about the supremacy of the family as a unit, even above other man-made institutions.

In the 4th commandment of the Small Catechism, Luther emphasizes that each role is not to be taken lightly. Being a good parent not only benefits the family, but stands as “one that serves the well-being of all society.” In fact, he correctly identifies that the role of parents is to “uniquely serve as God’s representatives through whom He bestowed and nurtures human life on earth.” (CPH, Luther’s Small Catechism, 81). In many ways, pastors, teachers, employers, and government officials are to help support parents in their role as caregivers and teachers of their children.

“Honor includes not only love, but also deference, humility, and modesty [which is] directed... toward a majesty concealed within them.”

And this should come as no surprise. Not every child grows and matures in the same way. Parents, not only because of their intimate knowledge of their child’s distinctive traits, but also because of their closeness to the situation and their deep love for their family, are best positioned to advise, direct, and raise their children. This is a gift and a blessing worthy of respect from those looking in. Put simply: parents understand best how to raise their children, and God has given them the right, the authority, and the blessing to do so. No one has more of a vested interest in the well-being of a child than his or her parent.

This is furthered within the text of the Large Catechism: “But [God] distinguishes father and mother above all other persons on earth, and places them next to himself... Honor includes not only love, but also deference, humility, and modesty [which is] directed... toward a majesty concealed within them.” (LC 1, 106, in BC, 401) (Jesus shows us the depth of this love, and just how far that goes when He stretched out His arms and died for us.)

Each person has a role: He appoints fathers and mothers to lead, guide, love, and care for the family members. God has placed authority upon this beautiful family structure. We don’t “win” by competing inside of the family structure, but instead when we work together (as “a village,” as some say) in love and truth. Not only are children called to honor their parents, but each of us is to honor the parental authority God has placed within each family we may interact with.

When the church gathers, we are to support and look out for each other, even though we might not be “blood-relatives.” The church itself imitates a family structure, and even if we’re not a family unit, we still look out for each other. It is our role as members of the body of Christ to help each parent carry out his or her vocation, and show our commitment to going the extra mile. Sometimes more beneficial than giving advice is simply to trust, and to lend a hand to help someone else’s objective. If fathers and mothers are God’s representatives, we can each strengthen the body of Christ as we kindly lend a hand, say a kind word, or simply encourage and trust each parent in their present course as they fulfill their vocation.

Thank you, parents, children, and those in authority, for seeking God’s will and caring for those to whom He has entrusted you. God be with you all, and may your love for Him and each other abound in you.

In Christian love,
Pastor Schrader

IMMANUEL- A GREAT PLACE TO LEARN AND GROW!

As Spring is upon us, we notice all the plants and flowers growing. The grass is green again, the trees are budding and blooming, and flowers are showing their beautiful colors. We marvel at the gardens we planted last fall, that are taking on their own special beauty.

We too, are growing! Daily, at Immanuel Lutheran School we strive to show our beauty by the words and actions we use, our participation in class and school-wide activities. We continue to grow in our knowledge and love of Jesus Christ. Those seeds of faith, planted throughout the year, continue to grow, and be nurtured. Through God's Word, at Immanuel we learn of Christ's love, His commandments, and His forgiveness, that is ours through Jesus. Seeds of truth and knowledge are planted throughout the school year and we daily bloom into the child He wants us to be.

Receiving a Christian education is the best education possible to give any child. We rejoice that the families of ILS have chosen us to teach their children, nurture their faith in Jesus, and teach a life-giving education. We are proud of our students and look forward to the day when all of the children we have taught at Immanuel will be united as one with Him in heaven forever.

--Ms. Hente, Principal

BOARD OF STEWARDS

We have a picture of the women going to the grave that first Easter morning to anoint the body of Jesus. It is barely light, and perhaps they are speaking in soft voices. Certainly, there is an air of solemnity, of sadness, for their Master is dead. Their hopes are gone.

Then we see them before the open tomb, bewildered, then fearful, as they see an angel with "appearance like lightning and...clothes...white as snow." The angel's first words are "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, Who was crucified. He is not here; He has risen, just as He said."

Perhaps some of us, too, have been bewildered, afraid. Even though we have always known the whole story – even though we look back on the Resurrection – we have been bewildered and afraid. The angel says to us, too, "Do not be afraid...[Jesus] is risen, just as He said!" That truth makes all the difference, for as Paul says, "Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep" (1 Corinthians 15:20).

The angel gives a command to the women: Come and see the place where He lay. Then go quickly and tell His disciples: 'He has risen from the dead...'" (Mathew 28:2-7). By faith, we too have seen the empty tomb; by faith in the Word of God, we know Christ is risen. The command is for us as well: go quickly and tell.

基督之光 华人教会 LUTHERAN CHINESE MISSION LIGHT of CHRIST

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT LIGHT OF CHRIST

Happy Lunar New Year of the Rabbit! On Jan. 21, we celebrated the Chinese New Year with our 9th Annual Dumpling Party. About 270 people attended this celebration. There were dumpling making, dinner, and performances by members of our Immanuel and LOC members. LOC always considers this a great opportunity to reach out to the Chinese community. The performances were all about bringing joy and light of Jesus Christ to those around us. Also, our sister Kan gave a moving testimony. It was a night to remember!!

On Feb 11, 20 church group leaders attended a leaders' retreat at LOC. Pastor Lim delivered a message about how to be spiritually strong according to Isaiah 40:27-31. He encouraged everyone to put our hope in Jesus Christ, where God will give us strength: "Run and not be weary, walk and not faint." We pray that God will strengthen all the leaders' faith and grant them wisdom and strength as they serve God.

By God's grace, in February we received three new members through transfer from other churches. We also received our newest member, Mrs. Zhi, through baptism on Feb 19. Mrs. Zhi attended the Center activities for many years. Gradually, she was moved by the hymns and the devotions we had, and later began attending the Center's Thursday Bible study class and Sunday worship. God's Word moved her heart and gave her faith to trust in Jesus. Finally, she received Jesus Christ as her Savior and was baptized. To God be all glory!

As God's mission, Light of Christ not only shares the Gospel, but also wants to serve the community to show God's love. In the afternoon of Feb 26, we held a FREE Health Screening event with HPES (Health Protection & Education Service) for the Chinese community. HPES provides health screenings for immigrants and refugees who do not have access to medical. The event was a success. 20 people registered and received the health screening. Our next screening will be on Sunday, March 26.

Finally, we had our Ash Wednesday service on Feb 22 as we began the Lenten season. Many of our members have never attended such a solemn service and this was an indelible experience for their own spiritual life and discipline. In this repentant season, we pray that God Almighty would have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins, as we reflect and ponder on all that Jesus has done for our sake.

Although Immanuel is not currently offering any GriefShare programs, resources for those who are grieving can be found at GriefShare.org. In addition to information on churches that are sponsoring GriefShare and related programs, you can subscribe to a year of emails for those who are grieving the death of a loved one. This offer is found on the home page under "Free daily email encouragement." These brief messages touch on various topics appropriate for those who are grieving. After a year the emails stop. No one will contact you, and if you request that they stop sending the messages before the year is up, they will do so immediately. In addition to the free daily emails, GriefShare.org has books available for purchase and other resources that can be found under the "Healing" tab at the top of the website.

SAUSAGE DINNER RECAP

Thank you to all who helped with the Sausage Dinner. After two years of COVID and no sausage dinners, this year was a great success. We profited $5,966; these funds are designated towards refurbishing the fellowship hall.
